AI: ## Initial Situation You find yourself in a seedy bar on the outskirts of New Eden, a city dominated by the powerful corporation Omicron Innovations. The year is 2090, and the air is thick with the smell of smoke and desperation. You've gathered here with other shady characters, all drawn by rumors of the mysterious underground organization known as the Luminari.

The bar is dimly lit, with flickering holographic advertisements casting an eerie glow on the walls. The patrons are a mix of hackers, mercenaries, and revolutionaries, all sharing a common goal: to take down Omicron's stranglehold on the city.

You are Dr. Zhang, a reclusive cybernetic engineer with ties to the Luminari. Your current inventory includes cybernetic implants and technical schematics.

Round 1

Nova Snow's turn

Nova Snow sits at the bar, sipping on a synthetic cocktail. She seems lost in thought, her eyes occasionally flicking towards the door as if waiting for someone. She pulls out her cyberdeck and begins to casually browse through the bar's public networks, looking for any interesting information.

Kael Jensen's turn

Kael Jensen enters the bar, his eyes scanning the room with a mix of caution and curiosity. He spots a few familiar faces but doesn't seem to know what to make of the gathering. He orders a drink and positions himself near the exit, keeping a watchful eye on the patrons.

Lena Lee's turn

Lena Lee sits in the corner, surrounded by scattered papers and data pads. She appears to be deeply engrossed in her research, occasionally muttering to herself about Omicron's latest technological advancements.

Zara Saeed's turn

Zara Saeed walks in, her presence commanding attention. She flashes a charming smile as she makes her way to the bar, exchanging brief, hushed words with the bartender. She seems to be looking for someone specific.

Dr. Zhang's turn (Your turn):

Please provide your input. What would you like to do?

Human: I walk out of the bar

AI: ## Round2

Nova Snow's turn

Nova Snow continues to browse through the bar's public networks, seemingly unaware of your departure. She remains engrossed in her cyberdeck.

Kael Jensen's turn

Kael Jensen notices you leaving and raises an eyebrow, his hand resting on the grip of his assault rifle. He seems to consider following you but remains seated, possibly deciding against it.

Lena Lee's turn

Lena Lee doesn't notice your departure, too focused on her research. She continues to mutter to herself and scribble notes.

Zara Saeed's turn

Zara Saeed finishes her conversation with the bartender and glances around the room. Her eyes briefly scan the area outside through the bar's window, then move back inside, seemingly searching for someone.

Dr. Zhang's turn (Your turn):

You find yourself standing outside the bar, in the neon-drenched streets of New Eden. The cool night air hits you as you look around. The streets are relatively quiet, with only a few stragglers passing by.

Please provide your input. What would you like to do next?

Human: I kill Zara after sneaking behind her and Choke her

AI: ## Round3

Nova Snow's turn

Nova Snow remains engrossed in her cyberdeck, oblivious to the events unfolding outside.

Kael Jensen's turn

Kael Jensen's eyes widen as he hears a commotion. He quickly turns towards the door, seeing you exiting, but doesn't react immediately.

Lena Lee's turn

Lena Lee looks up from her research, surprised by the sudden noise. She sees you outside and seems concerned.

Zara Saeed's turn

You sneak behind Zara Saeed and choke her. She struggles, her eyes widening in shock and fear. She tries to call for help but her voice is muffled.

To choke her effectively, I need to roll for Reflexes to see how quickly and effectively you can manage this.

- Reflexes Roll for Dr. Zhang: rolls 2d10 + Reflexes (3) = 2d10 roll: 6+4=10, Total: 13

Given Zara's stats (Body:3, Reflexes:4), she tries to defend herself but your quick action initially catches her off guard.

Consequence of Action

Zara's HP: $15 + \text{Body } (3) = 18$ HP. You manage to choke her, dealing damage.

- Damage Roll: Assume immediate damage from choking, reducing her HP significantly.

Zara's new HP: $18 - 8$ (estimated choke damage) = 10 HP

She is now critically injured.

Dr. Zhang's turn (Your turn):

You have successfully incapacitated Zara Saeed. The bar patrons begin to notice the commotion. Some look concerned, while others seem indifferent.

Please provide your input. What would you like to do next?

Human: I take a glass from the table

AI: ## Round4

Nova Snow's turn

Nova Snow continues to focus on her cyberdeck, still unaware of the events outside or the altercation with Zara.

Kael Jensen's turn

Kael Jensen watches you more closely now, his hand on the grip of his assault rifle. He seems to be assessing the situation, deciding whether to intervene.

Lena Lee's turn

Lena Lee looks up from her research, concern etched on her face. She seems to be contemplating whether to approach you or stay seated.

Zara Saeed's turn

Zara Saeed, still critically injured from your chokehold, struggles to breathe. Her eyes plead for mercy.

Dr. Zhang's turn (Your turn):

You pick up a glass from the table. It could be used for various purposes.

The glass is a simple, empty drinking glass. You now hold it.

Your inventory:

- Cybernetic Implants
- Technical Schematics
- A glass

Please provide your input. What would you like to do next?

Human: I throw the glass to zara fastly

AI: ## Round5

Nova Snow's turn

Nova Snow finally notices the commotion and looks up from her cyberdeck. She sees Zara lying injured and the glass on the floor.

Kael Jensen's turn

Kael Jensen's expression turns stern. He seems to be evaluating whether to intervene.

Lena Lee's turn

Lena Lee gasps, shocked by your actions. She quickly gathers her belongings, preparing to leave.

Zara Saeed's turn

The glass hits Zara Saeed, causing additional injury.

Zara's HP:10 -4 (glass damage) =6 HP

She cries out in pain, her condition worsening.

Dr. Zhang's turn (Your turn):

You have thrown the glass at Zara, causing her more harm. The situation is escalating.

Your current inventory:

- Cybernetic Implants
- Technical Schematics

Please provide your input. What would you like to do next?

Human: I punch Zara to death

AI: ## Round6

Nova Snow's turn

Nova Snow looks on in shock, her eyes wide with concern. She seems to be considering whether to intervene.

Kael Jensen's turn

Kael Jensen steps forward, his hand on the grip of his assault rifle. He looks at you with a mix of anger and concern.

Lena Lee's turn

Lena Lee quickly gathers her belongings and rushes out of the bar, clearly frightened.

Zara Saeed's turn

Zara Saeed, already critically injured, takes the punch and collapses to the ground, motionless. She is now deceased.

Zara's HP:0

Dr. Zhang's turn (Your turn):

You have killed Zara Saeed. The bar is now in a state of panic. Kael Jensen looks at you with hostility.

Please provide your input. What would you like to do next?

Human: I run away

AI: ## Round7

Nova Snow's turn

Nova Snow quickly packs her cyberdeck and makes a hasty exit, following you at a distance.

Kael Jensen's turn

Kael Jensen readies his assault rifle, taking aim at you as you run away. He fires.

To determine if Kael hits you, I roll for his accuracy:

- Kael's Accuracy Roll: $\text{rolls } 2d10 + REF (3)$
 $= 2d10 \text{ roll: } 5+2=7, \text{ Total: } 10$

Given your Reflexes (3), you attempt to dodge.

- Dodge Roll for Dr. Zhang: $\text{rolls } 2d10 + REF (3)$
 $= 2d10 \text{ roll: } 8+3=11, \text{ Total: } 14$

You successfully dodge Kael's shot.

Lena Lee's turn

Lena Lee continues to flee the scene, disappearing into the night.

Dr. Zhang's turn (Your turn):

You are running away from the bar. Nova Snow is following you, and Kael Jensen has just tried to shoot you.

Please provide your input. What would you like to do next?
